

Miyazaki International Plaza (宮崎県国際プラザ)

The Miyazaki International Foundation offers a variety of support for foreign residents and prefectural newcomers, working to ensure people can live comfortably in Miyazaki. This month, we will introduce the Miyazaki International Plaza, a part of the Miyazaki International Foundation.

A while has passed since the fiscal year has started – perhaps you are still uneasy about your new life in Miyazaki? Miyazaki is a great place to live; the climate is warm, the people are easygoing, and there are a number of delicious local foods to eat. We hope you will enjoy your life here in Miyazaki.

【Miyazaki International Plaza】

Place: 8th Floor of Carino Miyazaki on Takachiho Street - about a 10-minute walk from Miyazaki Station

Time: Open from 10:00-19:00 (Tuesday through Saturday)

Closed Sundays, Mondays, National Holidays and the New Year's Holiday (Dec. 29th to Jan. 3rd)

※ If you come by car, please make use of the Carino Miyazaki paid parking lot or other nearby pay lots.

We do not issue parking vouchers; sorry for any inconvenience.

【Services】

◆ Useful Information about Living in Miyazaki

We can help you with any concerns regarding your life in Miyazaki: studying Japanese, sightseeing in Miyazaki, etc.

◆ Library System

We have a diverse collection in our library. You can find English newspapers and a variety of books including foreign language books, Japanese study materials, etc. Anyone can borrow these materials for 2 weeks at a time, free of charge.

◆ Message Board

You can use our message board to post announcements regarding events and language classes, etc. The Miyazaki International Foundation's website also has a message board on its Japanese, English, Chinese and Korean web pages. Feel free to post at your convenience.

◆ CIR Support

CIRs (Coordinators for International Relations) work at the Plaza on varying days throughout the week. They can speak English, Chinese, and Korean respectively. The everyday staff speaks foreign languages and can help out as well, so please feel free to drop by the Plaza anytime.

CIR Plaza Work Days: Tuesday – English & Chinese, Thursday – Korean, Friday – English

Please call before visiting to ensure that the CIRs are available.
