

20th Annual Art Festival: “Miyazaki from the outside looking in”

Summer is coming to an end, and we’re starting to feel the cool air of autumn, meaning we are once again launching the Art Festival with works on the theme of “Miyazaki”. Come along to see and feel a different Miyazaki to the one you’re used to, through the lens of artworks by people of various nationalities.

Venues/Time periods:

☆Miyazaki Municipal University Library (Cross Lounge)

27 September (Sat) 2025, 11:00~16:00

※Artworks will be displayed as part of the “World Terrace” festival hosted by Junior Chamber International Miyazaki.

☆Carino Miyazaki B1F, Communal space

2 October (Thu) ~ 25 October (Sat) 2025, 10:00~19:00

※Closed Sundays, Mondays and National Holidays

☆Miyazaki Prefectural Government, Disaster Preparedness Headquarters, 1F, exhibition area

7 January (Wed) ~ 16 January (Fri) 2026, 8:30~18:00

※Closed on weekends and National Holidays

There are four categories, photography, paintings/drawings, calligraphy and handmade crafts. All the artworks are full of originality and are well worth seeing. In addition, we will be collecting votes in the gallery until 25 October to decide on the top prize for each category. If you happen to be in the area, please drop by and pick out your favourite!

The 2025 “World Terrace International Festa” will be held this year at Miyazaki Municipal University.

Date: 27 September 2025 (Sat) 11:00~16:00

※Will go on regardless of weather; free entry

Come and enjoy the various booths representing different countries from Korea to the Philippines to Nigeria, as well trying on traditional dress, watching a taiko drumming performance, and enjoying delicious cuisine from food trucks. In addition to the Miyazaki International Foundation, the Miyazaki-Brazil Friendship Association, JICA and Vanuatu will have their own booths at the event. Please come along and bring your friends and family! We’d love to see you there.
